

ESB General Assembly Minutes

Date: Sept 6, 2017
Time: 17.35 – 18.45
Venue: Plenary room, Congress center, Athens
Invited: All ESB 2017 attendees

Agenda (as sent in July 2017 to the members)

- Approval of the agenda
- Approval of the 2015 general assembly minutes
- President Report
- Treasurer Report
- Auditors' Report
- Future ESB meetings 2017 – 2021 (AP)
- New membership scheme
- New statutes and byelaws
- ESB Journal
- YSF
- ESB Awards
- Council elections and functions (Prof E. Tanner)
- A.O.B

Modified agenda (as proposed and approved by the members at the general assembly)

- Approval of the agenda
 - Approved unanimously

- Approval of the 2015 general assembly minutes
 - Approved unanimously
- President Report
 - The president gave the word to Yannis Missirlis (honorary member of the ESB) to say a few words about Adam Curtis (honorary member of the ESB) who recently passed away.
 - Matteo Santin reviewed his goals for his president term, namely communication, innovation, and education.
 - He thanked council members for their help during his term.
- Treasurer Report
 - Peter Dubruel presented the treasurer report for 2016 and 2017, detailing expenses and revenues.
- Auditors Report
 - Rachel Williams (one of the two auditors beside Pentti Tengvall) proposed to approve the treasurer report for 2016. This was approved unanimously.
 - Peter Dubruel spoke again to give some details about the ESB members (275 to this date).
- New statutes and byelaws / membership scheme
 - Marc Bohner presented the purpose and rationale for a change of the membership scheme.
 - He also indicated the new fees proposed for the different membership categories (junior member: 20 €; ordinary member: 50 €; retired member: 0 €; honorary member: 0 €; lab membership: cancelled; corporate member: 300 €)
 - It was proposed to exclude the implementation modus for this new membership scheme from the discussion.
 - The new membership scheme should start with ESB 2018 in Maastricht.
 - No questions were raised regarding these two matters, so a vote was proposed. The GA accepted unanimously (1) to accept the new membership scheme, and (2) to accept the new membership fees.
 - In a second step, Marc Bohner addressed the new statutes and byelaws. A draft highlighting in yellow the changes to make to these two documents had been sent in July to all ESB members. Since a few comments came in, additional changes (in green) had to be made. These changes were presented by the ESB secretary. No questions were raised and both the new statutes and then the new byelaws were approved unanimously.
- ESB Journal
 - Aldo R. Boccaccini mentioned that electronic access to JMSMM had been provided to all ESB members using a new login system. He also announced that, as it is tradition, JMSMM will publish a special issue with papers presented at ESB 2017 with Prof. Maria Chatzinikolaïdou (ESB 2017 chair) and himself as guest editors.
 - Abhay Pandit presented the reasons for the choice of a new journal and the new journal (Biomaterials Science). Two comments came from the assembly: Prof V. Hasirci pointed out that only one member of the editorial board is from Europe. Abhay Pandit replied that the journal is looking for another European editor. Prof E. Tanner stated that traditionally ESB council members are in the board of the journal. Matteo Santin said that there was nothing on this matter in the contract between Springer and the ESB council.

- Future ESB meetings 2017 – 2021
 - Abhay Pandit briefly mentioned the location of the next ESB congresses, namely Maastricht (2018), Dresden (2019), and Porto (2021). The world biomaterials congress in Glasgow (2020) was also presented.
- YSF
 - Ana Pêgo listed the current members of the YSF board, presented the highlights of YSF activities in 2016 and 2017, such as the YSF survey, and the upcoming YSF board election. She also mentioned the YSF microsite on the ESB website.
- ESB Awards
 - 11 Julia Polak European Doctoral Awards, 2 Racquel LeGeros Awards, and 2 Rudolf Cimdins Scholarships were given in 2016-2017.
 - A summer school organized co-jointly between ESB and the (US) Society for Biomaterials (SFB) will take place in June 2018 in Bordeaux.
- Affiliated societies
 - Regular communications occur between affiliated societies and ESB.
 - 7 affiliated societies carried the “ESB 40th anniversary torch” and invited, on behalf of the ESB, speakers to the national conferences.
 - Affiliated societies and ESB published “A report on the biomaterials research translation in Europe”.
- ESB communication
 - The ESB president has a twitter account. The ESB has a website, and is present in Facebook and LinkedIn.
 - A calendar commemorating the 40th anniversary of the ESB was given away to WBC 2016 participants. Additionally, a specially designed ESB booth was setup at WBC 2016 to celebrate the 40th ESB anniversary.
- Council elections (Prof E. Tanner)
 - Eight ESB members were candidate at the recent council elections, four of which currently in the council.
 - Prof E. Tanner reported the names of the 5 new council members: Abhay Pandit (re-elected), Pamela Habibovic (re-elected), Peter Dubruel (re-elected), Silvia Farè (new), and Marc Bohner (re-elected)
- New president and functions
 - Matteo Santin presented the president: Pamela Habibovic.
 - Pamela Habibovic listed then the positions within the new council:

▪ President:	Pamela Habibovic
▪ Vice-President / education / awards:	Joëlle Amédée
▪ Secretary:	Ana Pêgo
▪ Treasurer:	Marc Bohner
▪ ESB journal / YSF:	Aldo R. Boccaccini

- Industrial liaison officer: Peter Dubruel
 - National Societies: Silvia Farè
 - International relations / conferences: Abhay Pandit
 - Communication officer: Carlos Rodríguez-Cabello
 - Past president: Matteo Santin
- A.O.B
 - Nothing

List of attendees

The list of attendees was obtained by asking all attendees to fill out the presence list. One name was unreadable, so it is neither listed under “ESB members” nor under “non ESB members” (see below)

There were 109 attendees among which 67 are ESB members (24% of the 275 ESB members).

Note: More than 10% of the ESB members must be present at the general assembly to make decisions.

ESB members:

Ambrosio; Amédée; Bakopoulou; Barbosa; Barrias; Bertoldi; Boccaccini; Bohner; Bonifacio; Campiglio; Carmagnola; Chatzinikolaidou; Contessi; Demitri; Doser; Dubruel; Eglin; Farè; Favia; Focarette; Gautrot; Gelinsky; I. New Statutes

Marc Bohner

ESB 2017, Athens, Greece

 European Society for Biomaterials

Changes of the Statutes

Changes to the Statutes can only be made at a properly constituted General Assembly or by online voting (see below). In both cases, at least 10 % of the members shall vote.

Should any revision of the Statutes be needed at a short period of time, the Council has the rights of consulting proposed amendments among members and call for an online voting to be carried out after 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date of circulation of the proposed amendments. The resolution is passed if it gains the majority of the votes.

Section 5. Existing membership

Existing membership can be given to new members of any discipline and from all countries. Members will also be eligible to form special interest groups (SIGs) or to be elected as representatives to the general assembly.

Young Group Members are invited to vote by email and at General Assemblies on the Statutes. Young Members may be elected to the Council from the Young Group.

Section 6. Registration

Each person eligible for membership can register as a member through the online system made available by the Society on the ESB website and according to the membership definitions reported above and to the fees set by the council and approved by the general assembly. A status of ordinary member will also be given to any person who has registered for the ESB annual conference according to his/her membership definitions as reported above. In both cases the membership covers the calendar year in which the ESB annual conference is held, with the exception of the year when the World Biomaterials Congress is held. In such a case, the membership lasts 2 calendar years with no additional fee to be paid by the member.

European Society for Biomaterials

Resolutions can also be passed by electronic means within the time frame indicated above, provided that confidentiality and security are guaranteed in the adopted structure.

The Ballot officer is appointed, when needed, by the President or by the Council at least 5 months before the General Assembly. He or she must be an ordinary or [redacted] member, not member of Council and not a candidate for the election.

He or she must expressly accept the duties and responsibilities towards the Council and the member of the Society.

The ballot officer will open the forms, register the votes, prepare the list of elected members and report to the General Assembly. When balloting is [redacted] electronically, the ballot officer should oversee the election procedure, prepare the list of elected members and report to the General Assembly. The president and secretary should be informed about the vote prior to the General Assembly to plan the change of council.

ESB 2017, Athens, Greece

European Society for Biomaterials

Section 3. Organization

The hosting institution is fully responsible for setting the conference budget, and in particular [redacted] in the registration fee of each delegate the ESB membership fee. Draft delegate rates however, must be presented to and accepted by the council one year prior to the conference. [redacted] [redacted] If requested, the Council can give a free loan to the local organization to cover the risk of pre-financing of the conference.

Section 4. Membership fees

All ESB congress attendees receive automatically an ESB membership. The ESB congress organizer should transfer the membership [redacted] fee to the ESB account within 30 days [redacted]

ESB 2017, Athens, Greece

European Society for Biomaterials

Members shall be required to pay annual membership fees according to the different categories of membership. The fees will be established by the council, approved by the General Assembly and published on the ESB website. The financial year shall run from January 1st to December 31st. Honorary and [redacted] members are exempt from payments of membership fees. A status of member will also be given to any person who has registered for the ESB annual conference and according to his/her membership definition as reported above. In both cases the membership will cover the calendar year in which the ESB annual conference is held, with the exception of the year when the World [redacted] Congress is held. In such a case, the membership of the previous year lasts 2 calendar years with no additional fee to be paid by the member.

European Society for Biomaterials

Objectives: To provide European and American students with a week-long didactic and practical learning experience addressing Biomaterials research, Medical Devices and Regenerative Medicine

Course Dates: 15th-29th June 2018

Course Location: University of Bordeaux, Bordeaux, France

Target audience: Doctoral and post-doctoral researchers with a research background in Biomaterials, Tissue Engineering and Regenerative Medicine. The maximum number of participants will be 20 (10 members of the European Society for Biomaterials and 10 members of the Society for Biomaterials)

Course Costs: € 500 per participant (Accommodation in student dormitory housing, all lunches, Welcome Reception and Gala Dinner are included)

Applications: Information will be online on the ESB website, October, 2017
